First Presbyterian Church

October 2014

Clarks Summit, PA

Join us for a special worship event . . .

Imagine this:

- A jazz vespers with meditative music
- Prayers for healing
- The sacrament of communion

Join us for The Mending, an hour of prayer and music offered for the first time on Sunday, October 12, at 4:00 p.m. All are welcome in our sanctuary!

“Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven.” (James 5:13-15)

The church office will be closed on Monday, October 13th

From the Pastor

William G. Carter

Dear Friends,

It is the season when every organization we know is raising financial support for the coming year. The church is no different. As public charities and humanitarian organizations make their appeals, I have reflected on why I give the majority share of my annual contributions to the Christian church. Here some of my reasons:

- 1) The church is the grandmother of many worthy organizations. We are the original “feed the hungry, inform the soul” charity. We declared in good works that God wants hungry humans to be fed, thus initiating all kinds of soup kitchens and homeless shelters. The Christian church created colleges that have taken on lives of their own. In our Reformed Christian heritage, we believe faith must transform the public life of people. Thus our faith inspired the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous, Rotary and Lions clubs, Scout troops, health agencies, and the United Way. By giving first to the church, I remember the Grandmother that others have forgotten.
- 2) The church gives primary meaning to my life. The church tells me I am a child of God; nowhere else do I hear that affirmation in our world. The church proclaims the Gospel, by which I know and trust that my rebellious nature is overcome by the saving kindness of Jesus Christ. The church calls me to live a joyful and holy life, teaching me how to treat others, how to take care of my soul and spirit, and how to depend on neighbors. Christ calls me away from the intoxicating selfishness that pollutes our moral air. To celebrate my identity in Christ, I give my money to the faith community that He has established.
- 3) The church is open and accessible to all who inquire of it. When we give our money to an organization, most of us hope it will make a difference. We don’t always know how much of the funds will go to overhead, maintenance, or bureaucracy. I can tell you plainly that our church does not waste a nickel of what it receives. The majority of our budget is for people - a most appropriate use for a Christian community. Our staff exists to support the work of our congregation as we worship, learn, and serve together. Our building is a thoroughly used home for Christ to be tangibly present in the lives of those who pass through our doors. Plus our church gives money - and volunteer time - to ministries that help those in need. I want to be part of that, so I give!
- 4) Giving gives me joy. When the apostle Paul declares, “God loves a cheerful giver,” he points to an astonishing secret of the generous life. Our Lord has affection for those who give freely of themselves. That is because the scriptures tell us we have a self-giving God. God is exceedingly generous, and honors those who imitate this holy trait. God works in the generous and grateful soul. There is no better feeling than to help somebody, to love somebody, to spend time with somebody, and to share something necessary with somebody. Know what I mean? I don’t “give ‘til it hurts”—I give until it feels good!

We are so richly blessed to have our church community. As days, weeks, and years pass, it is easy to take what we have for granted, especially when we enjoy it as much as so many of us do. It is essential to the Gospel ministry we share that we support our congregation generously. As we move through the fall to our Dedication Sunday on October 26, I invite you to reflect on the reasons why you give—and to join me in making a strong pledge of support to the Church on the Hill.

THE WAY

The Wednesday Adults and Youth Christian Education

“I am the WAY, the TRUTH, and the LIFE”

Supper, 5:15 * Gathering Time, 6:10 * Classes for all ages, 6:15

Spark (Newborn - 3 year old) enjoy Bible stories, songs and games in the nursery with teachers Myrna Diven, Grace Farrell and our Sunday caregivers. In October, our Spark students will hear about the stories of Baby Moses (Exodus 2:1-10), Moses and the Burning Bush (Exodus 3:1-15), God Calling Samuel (1 Samuel 3:1-20), David Being Chosen (1 Samuel 16:1-13), and Solomon Building the Temple (1 Kings 6).

Power Xpress (4 year old - Grade 5) are divided into two age groups and experience Bible stories through interactive rotation classes. October 1 and 8: Joshua Leads The People. In this unit, students will hear the story of Joshua leading the Israelites into the Promised Land and learn that God is present with us at all times and that God calls us to serve and obey Him. October 15 and 22: The Burning Bush and Other Images of God. Children will explore some of the images of God found in the Bible and discover how those images help us to know who God is.

We Believe: The Story of God's Faithfulness (Grades 6-8) Room 209 with Jana Schillinger, Chris Norton and Andy Kepler. Using We Believe: The Story of God's Faithfulness, our Middle School Class will spend the year digging deeper into the Old Testament, learning and experiencing how God revealed himself to the Hebrew people. The journey continues in October by looking at Abraham and Sarah (Genesis 12-22), Jacob's Story (Genesis 25:19-30:24), Joseph in Egypt (Genesis 37-47), The Call of Moses (Exodus 3:1-4:17), and Moses and Aaron (Exodus 5:1-6:13).

PresbyYouth (Grades 9-12; college age adults) Room 111 with Charlie Pinches and Darlene Scappatura. Throughout the fall, this class will be using PresbyYouth's curriculum: Prophets and Exile. In this unit, students will hear the stories of Elijah, Isaiah, and Jeremiah as they explore a variety of spiritual practices to help hear God's voice and get to know the prophets of God who preached repentance to the people. In October, students move from Elijah's story (1 Kings 19:1-18) into the prophets of Jeremiah and Elijah (books of Jeremiah and Isaiah) and the fall of Jerusalem (Deuteronomy 4:12-40, 2 Kings 23:36-25:17).

Talking About God Stuff (TAGS) Room 206. October 1-8: The Healings of Jesus. Rev. Carter will lead a weekly Bible Study on the Healings of Jesus. October 15-29: Modern Parables. The parables Jesus taught to his followers revealed God's truth by using examples from their lives as farmers, fishermen and shepherds. Even today, we are able to relate to these parables and see God's truth in them. But have you ever wondered what these parables might look like in today's world? Modern Parables draws out the truth's of Jesus' parables, placing them into today's context and revealing a way for our faith to influence every aspect of our lives.

Faith and Life, Room 210. October 1 and 8: TechnoChristian. In today's world, it seems nearly impossible to live without some form of technology. Technology adds peculiar challenges as well as new connection. Join us in weekly conversation about the blessings and fears of technology, privacy matter, cyber-bullying as well as new opportunities for Christian growth and outreach. October 15-29: Called To Life. Have you ever wondered what God is calling you to do in your life? Have you ever questioned how to discern God's voice? Join us in the journey of discovering how God works in our lives, who He is calling us to be and how He wants us to speak His truth to those around us.

Wednesday Supper Reservations

Light Supper is served before The Way classes from 5:15-6:10 for those with reservations.

Suggested donation: $3 per person.

Please return reservation slips no later than Monday. Slips can be placed in the basket near the phone in the kitchen or in the offering plate. You may also call the church office to make reservations.

Reservations slips can be found in the church office, in the kitchen, or in pews.

The Christian Education & Growth Committee will be working with The Scranton-Lackawanna Human Development Agency again this Christmas to provide pajamas for several Head Start centers. Our goal for this year is approx. 110 children. Look for more information next month and in our weekly bulletins

Are you someone who prefers to manage your financial transactions online—or even by mobile phone? The online giving page from the FPCS website is now optimized for smartphones. When you bring the page up on your smartphone screen, it's easily readable, with buttons you can press to make a contribution to the church via direct debit from your bank account. You can use this process to make a one-time contributions, or to set up recurring automatic contributions at whatever interval (such as weekly or monthly) you prefer.

Giving by credit card is also available through this same method, for those who prefer that means of giving over direct bank-account withdrawals.

If you haven't made an online contribution to the church before, you'll need to go through a brief, one-time set-up process. You'll need to enter the routing number and account number printed at the bottom of your checks. The instructions on the screen will talk you through it. After that, the system remembers your account information: you just log on with the username and password you've created, enter the contribution amount and whether you're designating it for a special purpose, and you're good to go! It's just like using any other online bill-paying service.

When you contribute in this way, the church does not have access to your account numbers or personal bank account information. A payment issued by our third-party provider, Vanco Services, arrives in the church office a little later, accompanied by a report indicating the name of the donor and whether the gift is designated for any special purpose. Nancy Owens, the church's Administrative Assistant, will confidentially log your contribution as she does any other, so it will be included in your quarterly giving statement. Vanco, a leading provider of online financial services for churches and other non-profits, has state-of-the-art security protocols in place to make sure transactions are safe and reliable.

An even more convenient way to find your way to the online contributions web page is by using this QR code. Just open up any barcode-scanning app on your smartphone (any shopping barcode-scanner app out to do it), scan this image, and you'll be taken directly to the contributions page of the church website.

We will include the QR code in the church bulletin. If you're so inclined, you can make an electronic contribution in real time, as the ushers are passing the offering plate!

Why not give it a try right now, to see how easy it is? Open your smartphone's barcode-scanning app, hold the camera lens up to the computer screen, click the scan button, and a few moments later you'll be taken directly to the smartphone-enhanced version of the FPCS online contributions webpage.

If this seems weird or overly geeky to you, just consider this: there was a time when putting a check—rather than cash—into the offering plate was the new technology. That probably seemed just as strange to people of that era. Some of today's "digital natives" and "digital immigrants" don't even OWN a checkbook!

Women's Bible Study Focus text: 2 Corinthians 1:1-2:4

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

I confess – it is true, even though I wish it wasn't. I am not a good correspondent. I don't keep in touch with people nearly as often as I should, including with my family members who do not live nearby or friends from far away. In today's world it is easy to keep in touch with the telephone, US mail, and the Internet, including modern things I don't know how to use such as Facebook. There can be instant gratification if the other person happens to have his phone on or be on his computer at the same time that you are. It is not because I am too busy. I have no excuse.

In the world at the time when Paul lived, the only way to stay in touch with someone who was far away was by writing a letter. We know that Paul wrote numerous letters to the church in Corinth but we do not know how many because they were edited by other people. To be able to fully understand the letters we need to take into consideration the social and economic background of the area at that time. Corinth had a reputation as a city of sex and sin as well as a center for trade. That would have influenced what Paul wrote. Another consideration with letter writing is the time that it takes to receive a reply. If you do not receive a reply you have no way to know the effect of what you wrote to that person.

The Presbyterian Women have their Bible study meetings on the 3rd Tuesday of each month. Known as "Circles", they usually gather at the church. The times are 10:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. All women are invited. Friends are welcome, as well!

Earth Care Task Force News

We are waiting to hear back from the PCUSA about our recertification as an Earth Care Congregation. Thank you to all groups in the church who have made efforts to increase our sustainability efforts and education.

Thank you to the eight who came out to clean up our section of the Morgan Highway on Saturday, September 13th. Great job even with the rain!

We are planning three Table Talks on environmental issues. Stay tuned.

Ways to Eat Environmentally Friendly-

Making environmentally conscious choices does not have to be difficult. Here are some easy suggestions.

- Avoid extra packaging and carry reusable bags. The United States alone adds 20 million plastic baggies to landfills
- Decrease your use of bottled water. Last year Americans went through 50 billion plastic water bottles
- Buy fair trade when possible.
- Increase vegetarian options. Cornell University researchers estimate that "producing a pound of animal protein requires, on average, 100 times more water than a pound of vegetable protein."
- Eat in season. Preserve it so you can eat seasonal foods year round.
- Try to cook one meal made of only local ingredients per week. The average food travels 1500 miles to get to your plate.

Reminders and activities you can participate in:

Coups for the Troops: We are still participating in Coups for the Troops. This organization will receive and distribute unused manufacturer coupons to military families overseas. These coupons can be up to 6 months past the expiration date and can only be manufacturer coupons, not store specific or restaurant coupons. This is an easy way we can help our military families. A basket is located on the table in the Narthex. Coupons will be mailed 4 times a year. The only change to our collection is that coupons are now being requested to be cut out.

Clothing Donations for St. Francis Kitchen:

As you are beginning to change your wardrobes, please think about donating those fall and winter items that you no longer want or need to our friends in need at St. Francis Kitchen. The weather is beginning to change and so the need for warmer clothing is increasing. Please place your gently used and clean items in the large box located in Fellowship Hall. Donations will be delivered weekly.

Bethel AME Homeless Shelter:

The Mission and Justice Committee has been in touch with the Bethel AME Homeless Shelter about ways we can assist with their mission to housing the homeless during the cold fall and winter months. This shelter depends on help from churches and other organizations to continue to help the homeless in the Scranton area. Look for upcoming bulletin and verbal announcements about ways we can participate and make a difference there!

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." Matthew 5:9

Peace and Global Witness Offering:

For many years, the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program and the Presbyterian Church (USA) have been committed to supporting the efforts of peace seekers and advocates working in the Presbyterian peacemaking community. This year the 221st General Assembly approved a change from The Peacemaking Offering to the Peace & Global Witness Offering. This transition will extend the depth of the Offering and inspire more Presbyterians to join this mission. This new Offering will allow us to broaden our reach, making a greater impact and bringing peace to people through Christ.

Our Peace and Global Witness Offering will be received on October 5, World Communion Sunday. Of this offering, 50% goes to the Presbyterian Mission Agency, 25% goes to Presbytery and synod peace and mission efforts, and 25% goes to congregational peace and mission efforts. Our 25% will help support one of our local missions, the Bethel AME homeless shelter. Please consider giving to this worthy cause to help bring the peace of Christ to those around the world.

Many people think it is hard to be a Stephen Minister. Here is what one person had to say about being a Stephen Minister: "One of the things we learned during Stephen Minister training was how and when to pray with our care receivers. Improvised praying (as I call it) made me very nervous at first—even though I do improvisational acting! But I've found that when I do pray with a care receiver, I can feel God saying to me "Relax!" and the words just seem to flow. I never thought I could pray aloud like this, but now I feel very comfortable doing it. A byproduct of being a Stephen Minister is that my faith has deepened. I talk to God all the time and constantly see Him at work in my life." Would you like to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister? Contact one of our Stephen Leaders John Conklin, Judy Cutler, or Rev. Bill Carter.

We will meet on October 23rd at Char Lyon's home at 7:00 (meet in the upper church parking lot at 6:30 to car pool). We will discuss Where'd You Go, Bernadette by Maria Semple. Bernadette Fox is notorious. To her Microsoft-guru husband, she's a fearlessly opinionated partner; to fellow private-school mothers in Seattle, she's a disgrace; to design mavens, she's a revolutionary architect, and to 15-year-old Bee, she is a best friend and, simply, Mom. Then Bernadette disappears. It began when Beeaced her report card and claimed her promised reward: a family trip to Antarctica. But Bernadette's intensifying allergy to Seattle--and people in general--has made her so agoraphobic that a virtual assistant in India now runs her most basic errands. A trip to the end of the earth is problematic. To find her mother, Bee compiles email messages, official documents, secret correspondence--creating a compulsively readable and touching novel about misplaced genius and a mother and daughter's role in an absurd world.

Hickory Project- NEPA's top
bluegrass band
Sunday, October 26, 2014
4:00 pm

The Hickory Project, NEPA's top bluegrass band, will open the Arts at First Presbyterian concert series on Sunday, October 26 at 4 p.m. Formed in 2001, the band features hard-driving traditional and original acoustic music deeply rooted in bluegrass.

Hickory Project is a powerhouse of musical prowess with the expert licks of National Mandolin Champion Anthony Hannigan, banjo phenomenon Mike Beaky, Steve Belcher, Josh Segulia, and Jillian Hannigan.

Hickory Project is globally acclaimed. They have captivated audiences throughout Europe and the US, and even as far away as Australia.

Hickory Project has now produced 1 DVD and 7 CDs under their own label, Hickory Productions.

All concerts in the series are open to the public. Even though we take a free-will offering at each event, we rely on contributions from individuals and government grants to meet our expenses. Please consider supporting the arts series this year by sending a check to the church with "Arts Series" in the memo block.

We certainly appreciate any support you can provide!

For more information, please contact the church at 570-586-6306 or visit our Website at www.fpccs.org.

Edible Cornucopias

If you're planning a harvest party, set up a snack station so people can fill their own edible cornucopias.

What you need:

- Waffle cones
- Bowls
- Spoons
- Toppings (chocolate chips, nuts, pretzels, fish-shaped crackers, candy corn, dried cranberries, yogurt-covered raisins, etc.)

What you do:

1. Set up the table, placing each topping in a bowl. Place a spoon in each bowl.
2. Invite friends to create their own cornucopia by spooning chosen goodies into their waffle cones.
3. Enjoy!

A promise to the earth

After the flood in Genesis, God promised to “never again ... destroy all living creatures” (Genesis 8:21, NIV).

Directions: Using the picture clues below, write each small word in the blanks to complete God's promise in Genesis 8:22, NIV.

“As long as the  ____ th

 ____ ures,  ____  ____

and har ____ , c ____

and h ____ , 1+2= [?] ____ mer

and  ____ ter, day and night

w ____  n ____ r  cease.”

G E N E S I S 8 : 2 2 , N I V

Answer: As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease. (Genesis 8:22, NIV)

Joys and Sorrows

Congratulations and best wishes to Holly and Kevin Shane on the recent birth of a son, Dean Clarence Shane. Dean's grandparents are Linda and Chris Woodley AND Debbie and Tim Shane!

We extend our sympathy to Bob and Vi Dygert, who lost their sister-in-law Pauline Wells on September 5. Please remember them in prayer and keep them in your thoughts!

Lucy Anne Kozlowski, daughter of Michael and Erin Kozlowski, was baptized on August 24, 2014 with Rev. Carter officiating. Lucy is the granddaughter of Carole LaCoe.

The seasonal workers and your church representatives want to THANK YOU once again for your generosity. This year your gifts allowed us to distribute toiletries, blankets, socks, towels, long sleeve T shirts, pens, writing paper and envelopes. We also provided workers with a Wednesday morning breakfast of coffee and donuts throughout the month of August. Maybe next year you could join Dick Broxton, John Conklin, Bill Keen, Andy Kepler, Jack Pittman, and Ron Thomas on this local mission outreach.
