Electric City Swing Sunday, March 6, 2016 at 4:00 pm

We welcome The Electric City Swing, a wonderful group of musicians who will perform the music of the 1920's, 1930's, and 1940's in the style of hot jazz or hot swing. Performers include NEPA all-stars Mark Woodyatt on violin, Tony Marino on bass, Nick Driscoll on reeds, Roy Williams on guitar, Anthony Hannigan on mandolin, Tom Kosic on guitar, and special guest violinist from France, Raphael Maillet.

Woodyatt's virtuosity on acoustic and 5-string electric violin has earned him high regard through our region. Tony Marino is well-known in the region and beyond for his masterful work on the bass. Hannigan appeared at FPC last year as leader of the Hickory Project, NEPA's top bluegrass band. Roy Williams writes music with a curious ear and an open mind.

This event is open to the public free of charge. A free-will offering will be taken to help defray our costs. For more information about the concert, call the church office at 570-586-6306 or visit

From the Pastor

William G. Carter

Dear Friends,

This year as we move into Lent and prepare for One Great Hour of Sharing, I remain grateful for the transformation made possible through this special offering. In places like Kitui, Kenya, Asheville, North Carolina, and Iona, Michigan, those most in need are finding hope and help through the work of Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, the Self-Development of People program, and their partners in ministry. In this media-driven environment of “the next big story,” it is easy to become distracted from the reality faced by our brothers and sisters around the world where poverty, disaster, and war cause displacement and suffering.

This is why we continue to give to One Great Hour of Sharing. When we give this year, we give in faith—knowing that staff in the three One Great Hour of Sharing programs will be responding in Christ’s name to the cries of our sisters and brothers throughout the next year. We trust that they will respond as they did in West Africa in the wake of the devastating Ebola crisis: immediately, directly, and through our partners wherever the emergency occurs. But equally important, we know that they will remain in areas of devastation long after the news cameras have moved elsewhere as they continue rebuilding both lives and communities.

Feeding the hungry, helping people build up their own livelihoods, responding to disasters—these are all ways that your gifts to One Great Hour of Sharing are changing lives, changing communities, and changing the world. We’ll read about examples of this in bulletin inserts leading up to the Offering. God does some amazing work through this offering!

I want to extend a challenge to you this Lent. Visit the One Great Hour of Sharing website (www.presbyterianmission.org/oghs) to find out more information on how your support of OGHS helps people all over the world. Then make a generous gift—or a series of generous gifts—to advance this special offering. Special envelopes are available in pews, as well as in the offering envelope boxes.

I hope you will join us each Sunday in March. Let’s open our hearts to witness tangibly to the abundant love of God through One Great Hour of Sharing.

Yours in the love and grace of Jesus Christ,

Rev. Bill Carter

First Presbyterian Church needs to be congratulated on the way it takes care of members who need some tender loving care.

From the pastor to the deacons and other members, I shall never forget the hospital visits, calls, food and flower deliveries that certainly speeded up my recovery. I hope I'll be able to reciprocate.
Sincerely, Gayle Hamilton

Dear Friends,

It took a while for me to get my thoughts together to tell you how thankful I am for being a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Clarks Summit. Jo's service was truly warm, heartwarming and as near perfect as any service I've attended. This was because of all of you. I have had many compliments concerning the beautiful church itself and the warm welcome extended to everyone who entered the church. The choir, and Kay, outstanding...the solo by Frank Jones, some asked if they could take him home. Kleenex e-mailed me thanking me for the boost you gave in their stock.

I have to thank:

- ◇ the Deacons for their help in making my day easier, their kindness in helping to both serve the meal and to clean up after,
- ◇ Stan and Gwynne Gilbert for ushering and making every stranger who entered feel comfortable and welcomed, and
- ◇ all who brought the delicious, home-made desserts.

Last but not least, thank you to Bill Carter who gave the most warm personal service that made everyone know how precious Jo was to me and to all of you.

Lastly.....attending services and events here with Jo I can tell you that, though she was not a member of our church, Jo loved our church and our teachings. Thank all of you for everything you do for Jo and myself. You are First Presbyterian Church of Clarks Summit.

Sincerely, John Conklin

On March 2 and 9, we welcome poet Dawn Leas as our special guest.

Also for adults, Char Lyon and Tyler Kusma will lead a six week study of the Parables of Jesus, based on the video teaching of Ken Bailey. This class will meet in Room 206 until March 24.

Our March 13th anthem, "Create in Me a Clean Heart", is based on Psalm 51. We look forward to sharing this beautiful text and music with the congregation for Lent.

We are very happy to be a part of such vibrant music ministry. We look forward to having Tom Heinze play the service music for March 6th, the same Sunday our Bell Choir will provide special music. Our Adult Choir has uplifting music planned for Palm Sunday and Easter.

Would you like to sing or ring? Talk to one of the directors; we'd love to have you join us!

If you can contribute, please contact Jana Schillinger or any member of CE committee.

March will find us at Nancy London's home on March 31st. Come join us as we discuss The Lowland by Jhumpa Lahiri. But for its lyrical, evocative scenes of life in the Calcutta neighborhood in which her heroes grow up, Jhumpa Lahiri's The Lowland could be set anywhere, in almost any time. At the center of this heartbreaking story are two very different brothers. Udayan, the younger by 15 months, is passionate, idealistic and ripe for involvement in the political rebellion in 1960s India (not all that different from his American counterparts of the same era.) Subhash is the "good brother," the parent-pleaser, who goes off to study and teach in America. But when Udayan, inevitably, ends up a victim of his self-made political violence, Subhash steps in and marries his dead brother's pregnant wife. His is the proverbial good deed that will never go unpunished; Subhash soon becomes a victim of his own goodness. As always, Lahiri's prose is lyrical and rich and her story is steeped in history, but in this book (more perhaps than The Namesake, her other novel) the issues raised are more universal and the plot more linear. Competitive siblings, parental love, commitment to belief and family, these are the topics one of our most brilliant writers addresses in what is at once her most accessible, and most profound, book yet.

What Is Stephen Ministry?

Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ (Galatians 6:2, NRSV).

Stephen Ministry is the one-to-one lay caring ministry that takes place in congregations that use the Stephen Series system.

Stephen Ministry congregations equip and empower lay caregivers—called Stephen Ministers—to provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care to people who are hurting.

If you are interested in learning more about the Stephen Ministry, contact one of our Stephen Leaders, John Conklin, Judy Cutler or Rev. Bill Carter.

MISSION AND JUSTICE

Lent and One Great Hour of Sharing go hand in hand. Last year we contributed a little over $6,000 to help people in need around the world and at home. In keeping with our suggestion to increase pledges by 10%, this year's goal is $6,600. OGH is a 3 pronged approach - disaster assistance, hunger relief and self development of people.

Plan to give generously.

MY BROTHERS' KEEPER QUILTING GROUP

In early February, the Lackawanna County Commissioners proclaimed the MBK project a local "Good Works" and presented the founders, Flo, Jim, and Len Wheatley, as well as Marie Cochrane of FPCCS, and Lucas Taylor of Keystone College, with Certificates. Our copy is on the bulletin board by Rev. Carter's office.

Our group has been busy since September, making over 25 quilts to date. This is possible because of the generous donations from our members - stuffing material, sheets, blankets, towels, gloves, socks, clothing, personal hygiene items - they all make our ministry possible. Thank you for your help!

We would like to invite anyone interested to join us in fellowship hall for our annual MBK Sewing Workshop on March 8. From 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM we will concentrate on making quilts for the homeless. As part of the fellowship, we will lunch together. Hope to see you there.

STATE HOSPITAL LUNCHEON—April 5th, Noon
Join us for lunch and fellowship with our guests in Fellowship Hall. You do not have to be a circle member to come and Men are always welcome.
