Service for the Lord's Day

Fourth Sunday in Lent

March 27, 2022

10:00 a.m.

Gracious God, in order that the children of earth might discern good from evil you sent your Son to be the light of the world. As Christ shines upon us, may we learn what pleases you, and live in all truth and goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

In preparation for worship, please turn off all cell phones and electronic devices.

ASSEMBLE IN GOD'S NAME

Words of Welcome

Prelude

"Trio Number 1"

Joseph Rheinberger

Call to Worship

O God, when you marched through the wilderness, the earth quaked at your presence.

O God, when you went out before your people, the heavens poured down rain.

You restored your heritage when it languished.

In your goodness, O God, you provided for the needy.

* Hymn 475

"Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

Ushers will collect prayer request cards from the center aisle.

Call to Confession

* Prayer of Confession

Almighty God,

to you all hearts are open, all desires known,

and from you no secrets are hid.

Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name,

through Christ, our Lord. Amen

* Silent Confession

* Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace

* Lenten Response 656

"We've Come This Far by Faith"

We've come this far by faith, leaning on the Lord, trusting in the holy Word; God's never failed me yet.

O, can't turn around, we've come this far by faith.

We've come this far by faith.

* Affirmation of Faith from A Brief Statement of Faith

In life and in death we belong to God.
Through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel,
whom alone we worship and serve.
With believers in every time and place,
we rejoice that nothing in life or in death
can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Big News: We are "Masks Optional"

At the March Session meeting, our Elders determined we will no longer be checking temperatures at the door and masks are now optional. We suggest that you still bring a mask with you so should you find yourself in conversation or prolonged close proximity to someone who is wearing a mask, you can slip yours on as a sign of Christian love and respect for their situation.

By all means, we encourage all to be vaccinated. It's the best way for us to be healthy. Thank you for your care, respect, and cooperation through the two-year ordeal of this pandemic. We hope we've beaten it - and we look forward to seeing you soon.

What is Lent? The Christian Education Committee invites us to take time to explore the meaning of Lent. Lent bags were prepared with devotions, activity and reflection suggestions. A few bags remain and can be found in the hall opposite the sanctuary.

The Shape of Repentance: How Does It Look When We Return to God?

March 30 - When God's People Misuse God's Earth

- For a number of years, our congregation was designated an "Earth Care" church. Let's revisit this, as a national leader in the church's earth care movement joins us.

Our sanctuary is open for prayer whenever the building is open.

Please keep in prayer: Cheryl, Hank, Dustin, Tins, Patrick, Kseniia, and Emily, the Baruffaldi family.

Get Connected with One Great Hour of Sharing

People who experience oppression, need, loss or lack, those are the people Jesus connected with, and they are the people we are invited to connect with today.

Between now and April 17, we will again be collecting for the PC USA's special offering, One Great Hour of Sharing. Around the world, millions of people lack access to things most of us take for granted: sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity. The three programs supported by the OGHS offering—Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and Self-Development of People—all work in different ways to serve individuals and communities in need. From initial disaster response to ongoing community development, their work fits together to provide people with safety, sustenance, and hope.

The theme for this year's offering is CONNECTION. Through our Church we connect with one another and celebrate the many ways God connects with us. During Lent, we especially celebrate that God connects with us through Jesus' resurrection and connects us with "those who have the least" through this special offering.

OGHS is the single, largest way that Presbyterians come together every year to work for a better world, and the Mission & Justice Committee has set a goal of $5000 for our congregation. Look for the special envelopes in the pews, simply write "OGHS" in the memo line of your check or direct your online contribution via the church website "for OGHS."
