Words of Welcome

Call to Worship

Tonight is when heaven kisses the earth.

Here is the manger where God takes on flesh.

The shepherds come to see this mystery,

even though official temples would not welcome them.

Wise sages from the East come to worship and offer gifts,

They are strangers, yet greeted as God's Beloved.

In a place that seems off the beaten path,

there God draws near to bring Light and Life to all;

there God sends his Son.

* Hymn 133

“O Come, All Ye Faithful” (verses 1, 3, 4)

The musicians will play a brief interlude between the verses.

* Opening Prayer

Creator of all the faithful and the unfaithful, some of us almost didn't make it tonight.

Other demands tug us in different directions.

Doubts have nipped at our heels.

Holiday greed threatens to make us less than human.

Yet tonight you meet each one of us: right here, right now.

You come, not with burning Holy Fire, but in the simplicity of a Child.

Come down low and reach us, we pray,

that we would experience your love and your mercy. Amen.

* Passing the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you . . . and also with you.

* Response

O come, let us adore him . . . Christ the Lord.

* Affirmation of Faith Titus 3:4-7

When the goodness and kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness we had done,
