

MIRACLES

Thy miracles in Galilee
When all the world went after Thee
To bless their sick, to touch their blind,
O Gracious Healer of Mankind,
But fan my faith to brighter glow!
Have I not seen, do I not know
One greater miracle than these?
That Thou, the Lord of Life, shouldst please
To walk beside me all the way,
My Comrade of the Everyday!

Was I not blind to beauty too
Until Thy love came shining through
The dark of self and made me see
I share a glorious world with Thee?
Did I not falter till Thy hand
Reached out to mine? Did I not stand
Perplexed and mute and deaf until
I heard Thy gentle, "Peace, be still,"
And all the turmoil of my heart
Was silenced and I found my part?

Those other miracles I know
Were far away, were long ago,
But this, that I may see Thy face
Transforming all the commonplace,
May work with Thee, and watch Thee bless
My little loaves in tenderness;
This sends me singing on my way,
O Comrade of the Everyday!
